Loomis Families of ## America

The Loomis Families of America is a non-profit organization devoted to encouraging and promoting family history, specifically the history of the Joseph Loomis family and his descendants. LFA is based in Washington State, serving any person interested in researching their family history.

LFA maintains a website at:
www.Loomis-Family.org containing useful family services and vignettes on important members of the family both past and present. Current family news, Loomis family census records, the Loomis Family DNA Surname Project, with more projects to come.

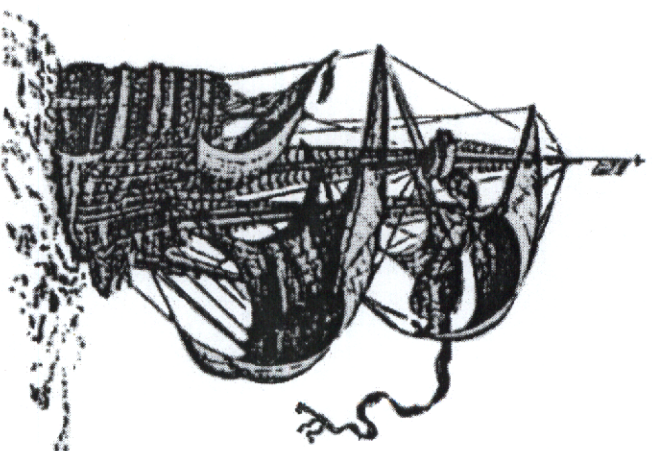

LFA preserves Loomis family records, documents, historical items, photographs, most anything pertaining to the family genealogy. Please consider us as a caretaker for your families documents should the need arise.
